DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 11-13, 15 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being clearly anticipated by U. S. Patent No. 5,991,804 to Bolosky et al.

As per claims 1, 2, 11-13, Bolosky et al. disclose the features of these claims (see at least the abstract).

As per claims 4 and 15, Bolosky et al. disclose a read-out means for reading out up-data stored in a storage medium and where the storage control means updates at least the system program (col. 6, lines 1-7).

As per claims 5 and 16, Bolosky et al. disclose a communications means and a storage control means (col. 9, lines 44-58).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 10 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bolosky et al. in view of the examiner taking official notice.

As per claims 10 and 21, Bolosky et al. do not disclose this limitation. The examiner, however, takes official notice that this feature is well known in the prior art. For example, systems which contain a database of secure information available to authorized users usually need to keep records of at least their authorized users and the available information to keep current regarding this data.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 22-39 are allowed.

Claims 3, 6-9, 14, 17-20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
